TCB OK'S JR. COLLEGE PLAN

Proposed Junior College Building

This 50-room building, donated to the East Richland school district in 1961 by the Pure Oil Company, will house the proposed Olney community college. The college must be authorized by George T. Wilkins, state superintendent of public instruction, and approved by voters.

Proposed Olney School To Get EIU Consultation

Eastern has been authorized by the Teachers College Board to cooperate with the East Richland Community Unit School District in the planning for a proposed two-year community college in Olney.

The Board, meeting Monday in Chicago, gave Eastern permission to provide consultative services to the East Richland district and to furnish certain managerial services to the community college should it be established.

The proposed community college would offer a two-year college level academic program.

Major steps in the establishment of a community college are a survey and approval by George T. Wilkins, state superintendent of public instruction, and approval by referendum of a majority of the voters in the district.

Wilkins, who has said that the need for a widespread system of junior colleges across the state is the number one problem facing Illinois education, stated that the Olney area is strategically located for the establishment of an institution of higher education.

Wilkins added that the plan by the East Richland district is a sound, logical approach to the problem.

He gave assurance that his office would give immediate attention to a request for statement of feasibility regarding formation of a junior college district as required by law.

President Quincy Doudna said the University and the East Richland board of education have reached agreement "in principle" on the respective roles and responsibilities of each in the proposed project.

"Primary services to be provided by the University would be the development of the instructional program, selection of the professional (Continued on page 8)

Speech Dept. Workshop Set For Saturday

A speech workshop for area high school teachers and speech graduates of Eastern, sponsored by Eastern's speech department, will be held Saturday in the Fine Arts Theatre. Registration for the all-day meeting is at 8:30 a.m.

President Quincy Doudna will welcome the visiting teachers and students at 9 a.m.

"The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" will be presented by the Reader's Theatre Guild. R. J. Schneider, assistant professor of speech, will direct the group.

Dale A. Level, assistant professor of speech, director of debate, will discuss the techniques of debating, using the University debaters to demonstrate.

Priscilla Wieck will address the group on "An Experiment in an Actual Speech Class." Wayne L. Thurman, associate professor of speech, will speak on the speech and hearing clinic services.

In the afternoon, students of Rock Falls Senior High School will present a contest play, under the direction of Guy Anderson.

State Treasurer Lorenz To Talk Here Monday

Francis S. Lorenz, state treasurer, will address the Young Democrats at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Library Lecture Room. He will speak on "The Opportunities for Young People in Public Service."

Lorenz was appointed state treasurer Sept. 1, 1961, replacing Joseph D. Lohman, who resigned to become head of the criminology department at the University of California.

Lorenz was elected clerk of the superior Court of Cook County in 1956 and treasurer of Cook County in 1958.

He was born Sept. 4, 1914, in Chicago, and educated in public schools in Chicago and at DePaul University. He graduated from the College of Law at DePaul in 1938 and was admitted to the practice of law the same year.

Lorenz was a member of the law firm of Maslanka and Lorenz from 1938 to 1943. He was assistant corporation counsel for the City of Chicago from 1943 to 1956.

Accidental Death Verdict Returned In Fatal Accident

A coroner's jury has returned a verdict of accidental death in the Jan. 6 auto-truck crash which took the lives of three Charleston teenagers.

Killed in the wreck were Jon P. Hopkins, 17, son of Jon J. Hopkins, associate professor of speech; Raymond D. Homann, 17; and Shirley Courtney, 15. Ann Huckleberry, 16, was seriously injured.

According to a deposition taken from Miss Huckleberry, the auto was being driven by Homann when the accident occurred.

Testimony given at the inquest indicated both vehicles were partially in each other's lane at the time of collision. Witnesses said the teenagers' car was skidding at the time of impact.

A hearing for J. V. Tapp, 37, Henderson, Ky., driver of the truck, originally scheduled for Jan. 10, has now been postponed indefinitely. Tapp is charged with improper passing.

The jury recommended that the stretch of highway where the accident took place be designated a no-passing zone.

Freezing Weather Blasts Charleston; All-Time Lows Hit

"It's simply freezing. The dogs are sticking to the sidewalks." This line from Thornton Wilder's play, "The Skin of Our Teeth," describes perfectly the weather Eastern students and most Midwesterners have been experiencing during the past week.

Charleston weather records for previous lows were broken three days in a row. The mercury dipped to a frigid 11 degrees below zero Wednesday.

Dalias A. Price, head of the geography department, explained that Wednesday's temperature was equivalent to 25 degrees below zero because of the wind, as Wednesday became one of the five coldest days in the 20th century for the Charleston area.

What's the outlook? More of the sub-zero temperatures? Price explained that Jan. 19 is considered the middle of winter. "If the first half of the winter is severe, the second half is usually less severe," he said. However, he classified that statement as a "rule of thumb," so keep the freezer door closed.

Eastern, Olney Junior College Affiliation . . .

Marks Major Move Forward

Eastern's affiliation with the proposed junior college at Olney marks a major step forward, both for the Olney area and for Eastern.

In recent years there has been an increasing need for more junior college programs in Illinois.

The college will help to mitigate the severe problem and will, in addition, provide a sphere of cultural influence for the community it serves.

Eastern's role, however, is not to be ignored. We have shown that we are capable of leadership in the race to provide higher education, while at the same time maintaining standards of highest quality.

Now we have undertaken a role that will further demonstrate our leadership, and, indeed, add to the totality of the educational goals we have set in our effort to provide more than adequate college training.

The junior college far too often is an outgrowth or an extension of a high school situation. Such is not the case at Olney, for its curriculum and its personnel will be established by a university.

Yet, neither is the junior college a branch of Eastern, as so many junior colleges are branches of universities.

Thus, additional tax burden is not heaped upon the taxpayer to support such a venture.

The present arrangement is unique — possibly the only one of its kind in the United States.

Others throughout the United States and in Illinois may seek to solve their educational problems in a similar manner, but none will be capable of showing more foresight and leadership than have Olney and Eastern.

Eastern's Defeat Of Southern . . .

Victory For Athletic Principles

Hats off to Eastern basketball coach Rex Darling and the entire Panther squad for their stunning 63-60 victory over the Southern Illinois Salukis Friday.

In their previous meeting this season at Carbondale, Eastern was no match for the hot-shooting, rough-rebounding, smoothly-oiled Southern machine.

This time, however, it was a different story; this time there was no Charlie Vaughn, whose grade-point average once again had taken a back seat to his scoring average.

The Panther victory means much more than merely adding a game on the winning side of the ledger, however. Far more important, it represents an Eastern victory in athletic principles.

It demonstrates that an institution which adheres rigidly to the athletic regulations of its conference can still assemble the necessary talent to defeat, on a given night, a sister institution in the process of going "big-time" in the sports world.

The IIAC has been racked with eligibility squabbles regularly during recent years. The philosophy of some member schools seems to be "our boys are eligible until someone can prove they aren't."

Eastern's 1960 IIAC number one singles tennis champ, Don Garver, was ruled ineligible by Eastern itself. The circumstances in his case were such that an unprincipled school could have probably gotten away with playing him.

It is to Eastern's credit that it pointed out the ineligibility itself, rather than attempting to get away with a violation of the rules.

Finally, Eastern's victory is a long-deserved reward for Coach Darling, and certainly no one deserves a few rewards more than he.

Regardless of the outcome of the remaining games, and regardless of the won-lost record the Panthers end the season with, Friday's performance insures, in many ways, that the season will be a winning one.

Gripes—omnipresent remarks. It is most difficult to write about complaints. Often a writer about gripes, himself is busily in the process of "gripping."

A writing griper, however, can not hope to compete with the vocal griper—he is vastly outnumbered.

College campuses, like most microcosms, have a plentiful supply of various sorts, kinds and degrees of gripers and gripes.

The "Campus Complaint" itself takes on many forms. Courses, grades, tests, instructors, facilities, campus food and drink are often subjects for subversion. One characteristic that almost surely separates a gripe from a legitimate cause is that the gripe is quite general in nature.

Usually a gripe-remark points out a condition of general lack of grace, charity, hope brambled with the qualities of inefficiency, irrelevancy and incompetence. The situation is "sin-full" and thoroughly "bad." An example: "I don't like the color of green leaves because it clashes with the sky."

It is supposed that the reader is well-acquainted with the more pertinent campus-type remark: "Dr. Glugg is a lousy instructor." Hardly so—modern hygiene—you know.

Attending more closely to the persons responsible (inclined) to such remarks, we may find two large categories: (A) The "Acute Arguer" (Collegiatus Acidus) (B) the "Chronic Bilger" (Collegiatus Catastrophicatus).

The acute complainer is vocal, but seldom persistent. Occasionally he is sincere, but usually inaccurate. His first cousin is the "Belated Berater." This departed one's remarks are best totally ignored — their absolute irrelevance is guaranteed.

The chronic case is just simply that—a case! To say that he is vocal is an understatement—volcanic being a closer approximation. His scatter-shot approach is only surpassed by his scattered brain. He is a confirmed naysayer that first says "nay," then "Neighs" and follows that with a grimace suggestive of a purple paroxysm.

Suggested palliative for gripers — aspirin and tranquilizers.

A usually effective silencer of gripers—ask for constructive alternatives. If this fails—carry a water-pistol filled with insecticide.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

Monday the Teachers College Board approved a plan which will allow Eastern to cooperate with the East Richland Community Unit School District in establishing a two-year community college at Olney.

Serious discussion on the project began in the latter part of 1961. Initial contact between the two parties was made by Leslie E. Purdy, superintendent of the East Richland public school.

It will be noted that the new proposed college, if approved by the state superintendent of public instruction and if the referendum is passed by East Richland voters, is to be academic in nature.

Eastern's role in the new college is to "develop the instructional program," and to recruit and recommend the faculty.

However, the junior college is not a branch of EIU, for the district will assume financial responsibility for the school.

After Eastern's initial aid is given, we will most likely continue our "management" role, probably with some of our personnel there in a dominating sense.

It appears obvious from the state superintendent of public instruction comments that approval will be forthcoming, if the referendum is passed, the target date for opening day likely be the fall of 1963.

Olney's facilities at present be able to accommodate approximately 500 to 600 students.

The curriculum, of course, will be established so that junior college students can readily transfer to Eastern after two years.

This latest move is further evidence of the quality of EIU's program and the respect with which the school is held. Leadership in higher education is clearly exercised by Eastern, so don't underestimate the school too lightly, as we and others seem to do.

Look what happened to Eastern's Salukis when they left at little old Eastern—the pack of them went yipping for they treed the wrong place.

Here, There And Everywhere

Dear Folks: Help! Send Money Fast!

(ACP)—Often there's more between the lines than on them in a collegian's letter home. Barbara Page offers this interlinear translation in the Park College Stylus: Dear Mom and Dad:

Sorry I haven't written, but I have already been caught up in the old college grind (rush parties, club parties, dorm parties). In fact, I often find myself studying until 4 a.m. (I don't start until 3:30). I find that my studies present a real challenge to me (I'm flunking).

Did you know that this college ranks among the top 10 in the nation (the soccer team is first in the area)? Our buildings and labs are equipped with the most modern facilities (the Brig has a pool table).

It is really wonderful how all my professors have that rare quality that strikes a chord of responsiveness deep within me (hatred). They are all very brilliant and exhibit this genius in a thousand ways (they are oddballs who expect us to go to class).

My roommate is a very nice guy (he lets me use his Bio notes).

Letters To Editor

Letters to the editor should be typed, double-spaced and may not exceed 250 words in length. All letters must be signed and should include the address and telephone number of the writer. Libelous or obscene letters will not be printed.

In fact, all the students here are wonderful and I have made many friends (she is a real doll). Our floor counselor is a real swell guy, too, and gives us lots of helpful advice (we threw him in the shower last night).

Mrs. Poffingrager, our house-mother, respects and admires my ability to get along independently (she locked me out last Saturday).

You will be glad to know that my math teacher said it was a pleasure to have me in his class (he thought I was a visitor).

I really love it here but I sure do miss home, especially both of you (please send money).

Your loving son,
(lots of money)

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Is it true that the clock in the Library is set commemorating the exact time of Mary Joseph Booth's death?

If this is not a tradition, doesn't someone have the clock fixed?

Sincerely,
Ann Davis '65

(Editor's note: Miss Booth much alive, resides at Fourth St., just across from campus.)

Don't Mind Warnings But Watch Your Steps

(ACP)—"These steps are of order. Please use the elevator."

Thus read a sign placed by a student at the top of the flight of stairs at Long State College.

Reactions varied, says Forty-Niner: Brash student ignored the sign and bravely ran on where wise men fear to tread. More cautious students assumed an attitude of look before you leap. They nonchalantly watched others go onward and upward then calmly waited to hear the reports of their fate.

Eight Faculty Members Prepare Program Study

Eight Eastern faculty members have been named chairmen of committees to study and evaluate Eastern's teacher education program.

The committees will evaluate the program in preparation for a study to be made of Eastern's teacher education program in January, 1963 by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education.

Those serving as chairmen of the committees are F. Raymond McKenna, associate professor of education; Curtis Garner, associate professor of education; Martin Schaefer, director of extension; Roscoe Schaupp, chief librarian; Walter Scruggs, head of the zoology department; Russell Landis, professor of industrial arts; Arnold Hoffman, assistant professor of chemistry; and James Giffin, head of the business department.

Guild To Present 'The Little Prince'

"The Little Prince," under the direction of Barbara Platt, speech major from Charleston, will be presented by the Reader's Theatre Guild at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the University Union Ballroom. The performance is sponsored by the Lyceum Committee of the Union Board.

R. J. Schneider, assistant professor of speech, director of the Reader's Theatre Guild, said the reading would be an example of what the group does on radio.

Written by Antoine de Saint Exupery, the script was adapted for oral interpretation by Christine McColl, English major from Charleston.

Miss McColl also collaborated in adapting scripts of "Alice in Wonderland" and Poe's "Tales of Terror" for the group.

The self-study is tentatively scheduled to be completed by June, according to Hobart F. Heller, vice-president for instruction.

He said that after an evaluation is made at the local level, the national organization studies the school's teacher education program and decides whether to accredit the school.

The national council re-evaluates teacher education programs every ten years, Heller said.

Jr. High Meeting Scheduled Feb. 9

The school of elementary and junior high school teaching will sponsor its third annual Junior High School Conference Feb. 9 on Eastern's campus.

Donald Grote, principal of Skiles Junior High School in Evanston and Eastern graduate, will be the featured speaker. He will speak on "Changing Concepts of the Exploratory Function in Modern Junior High Schools."

Theme of the state-wide conference is "Exploration in the Junior High School."

Conducting the conference is the faculty of the school of elementary and junior high school teaching. Norman Bauer and Fred Bouknight are co-chairmen of the planning committee.

Gamma Delta Honorary Begins Pledge Meetings

Pledge membership meetings for students interested in joining Gamma Delta, International Association of Lutheran Students, will be held at 7 p.m. each Wednesday for one month at the student center in Immanuel Lutheran Church. The meetings begin today.

Non-Lutheran students can join as associate members.

Thurman Attends Education Meeting

Wayne L. Thurman, associate professor of speech, attended a meeting on special education Saturday at Springfield. He was appointed as a representative of Eastern by President Quincy Doudna.

Thurman was a member of a 15-man committee which studied facilities and needs in all areas of special education in the state.

A previous committee made up of college presidents, deans, and directors and teachers of special education studied the problems of training special teachers.

"Most training has been done at Normal, the University of Illinois and Southern," said Thurman. "In some areas teachers colleges have participated, but not extensively."

"We are not turning out enough special education teachers, even though the demand is great," said Thurman.

Admission Test Slated For Graduate Study

Applications are now being accepted for the Admission Test for Graduate Study in Business. This test is required for admission to graduate courses in business.

The test will be given on Feb. 1, April 7 and July 28. Applications and fees should reach Educational Testing Service at least two weeks before the testing date selected.

Further information may be obtained in the placement office.

A pessimist is a man who thinks everybody is as nasty as himself and hates them for it.

Beta Beta Beta Offers New Tutoring Service In Biological Sciences

Members of Gamma Theta chapter of Beta Beta Beta, honorary biological society, recently established a tutoring service at Eastern.

Sanctioned by the administration and the botany and zoology departments, the service is the only official tutoring service on Eastern's campus.

Tutors will charge $1.50 per hour, a percentage of which will go to the Beta Beta Beta treasury. Students interested in taking advantage of the service may obtain a list of the Tri-Beta members qualified to tutor from any biology instructor or from the office of the dean of student personnel services.

Requirements for the tutors include an overall average of 3.0 in botany or zoology and no less than a 3.0 in the courses they will tutor.

Independents Slate Group Discussion

A panel discussion, "Why Be An Independent Independent," will be featured at the Independent Student Association meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Blair Hall Lecture Room.

Eight members of the local ISA visited an ISA meeting Jan. 9 at Indiana State College, Terre Haute. Money-making projects, leadership recognition, and problems encountered due to competition from Greek organizations were discussed.

P. Scott Smith, associate professor of physics and club adviser, accompanied the group.

EIU Panthers Demoralize Southern, 63-60

Eighth-Ranked Salukis' IIAC Streak Stopped

They said it could not be done! But David slew Goliath again. Yes, Eastern's Panthers knocked off the number eighth-ranked small college team in the nation, Southern Illinois University, by a 63-60 score Friday at Lantz Gym. Illinois State downed the Panthers 70-69 at Normal the following night.

Going into Friday's contest, the Salukis had netted 16 straight IIAC wins and had chalked up 11 straight victories this season after losing their first two games.

Opening up for the first time this year, the Panthers changed from a more deliberate brand of ball to a "fill the air with basketball offense." The EIU cagers were finding the range from all angles.

After building up a 16 point lead with 11:30 remaining by sizzling the nets at an unreal .750 percentage, the Panthers and their Cinderella story almost turned back into a pumpkin, as EIU missed 13 of 16 charity tosses.

Coach Harry Gallatin's cagers came back to reel off six points in a row after Val Bush had given Eastern a 61-54 lead on two free throws with 1:53 remaining.

SIU Comeback Fails

Dave Henson tipped one in with 1:07 left on the clock. After a missed free throw by Dick Carmichael, Captain Jim Gualdoni scored with 35 seconds remaining. With 12 seconds to be played Harold Hood scored from under to make it 61-60 as he fouled.

With the potential game-tying free throw, Hood, a junior reserve forward who scored 10 markers, missed the charity toss and Eastern's Lloyd "Bat" Eggers grasped on to the ball.

The Cumberland jumping jack fired down to "Hoagy" Carmichael who was fouled at the horn. It was icing on the cake when the former MacArthur ace threw in the two free throws.

The "man of many hats" had promised his players that if they were able to pull the big upset he would do the twist for them. He fulfilled his promise in an after the game dancing exhibition in the University Union Ballroom.

President Quincy Doudna made an appearance in the Panther's dressing room after the battle to commend the cagers and Coach Darling on the outstanding performance.

Hats off to Eggers!

With three minutes remaining in the first half, Darling sent in Eastern's version of the "Chinese Bandits." Val Bush, 5-10, Dick Planck, 5-10, Larry Weck, 5-10 and Larry Roland, 6-0, took away some of Southern's poise as they scurried all over the hardwood while fastbreaking and tormenting the Salukis on defense.

Eggers, the IIAC's top rebounder last season, started his first game since EIU played at Carbondale Dec. 14 and played magnificently. The unpredictable guy grabbed off 16 rebounds and rammed home 14 points including a couple of unbelievable hooks. Dick Carmichael led EIU with 16 points.

Southern and its highly touted fastbreak went into the game averaging 85.8 points per game but the Panthers stymied the Saluki offense. EIU led SIU 54-39 in rebounds and shot at a .426 clip while Southern shot .311.

Eastern lost to Normal 70-69 at Normal Saturday. EIU outscored the Redbirds from the field 27-23 but made only 15 free throws while Normal sank 24.

Normal jumped off to a 5-0 lead and increased it to 34-23 with 4:46 remaining. Eggers led an EIU comeback that brought the score to 42-38 Normal at the half.

All Right!

Exultation glows all over the face of Coach Rex Darling, head basketball coach, following Eastern's upset 63-60 conquest of Southern Friday at Lantz Gym. From a side view one can see the E for Eastern and for the Exhilarating win.

Tankers Stretch String To Four; Gymnasts Suffer First Defeat

Downing George Williams 55-40 and Navy Pier 58-36, Eastern's swimmers stretched their winning streak to four and a 4-2 overall record on an invasion of Chicago last weekend.

EIU tankers picking up firsts on Friday against George Williams were both relay teams, George Steigleman in the 220 and 440 yard freestyle events, Paul Nelson in the 160 yard individual medley, Mike LaForrest in the 200 yard butterfly, Stan Lind in the 200 yard backstroke and Captain Don Barber in the 200 yard breaststroke.

Coach Bill Groves stated that in this meet as well as in the one on Saturday the Panthers set a number of what would be school records but that they would not be counted because both Windy City schools have 20 yard pools while ours is 25.

George Steigleman, from Lane

Tech, Chicago, picked up firsts in the 220 and 440 events again on Saturday. EIU won the 400 yard medley and free style relays.

Nelson garnered another first in the 160 yard individual medley as did Barber in the 200 yard breaststroke.

The next dual meet is scheduled for next Tuesday at Indiana State.

Gymnasts

Eastern's gymnasts suffered their first defeat of the year at the hands of the University of Chicago gymnasts 60-52, Saturday in Chicago after posting three straight victories.

EIU To Host Eastern Michigan Friday Night

Eastern's Panthers will maintain Eastern Michigan Friday night a battle for undisputed fifth place in the IIAC. The encounter get underway at 8 p.m. in the Lantz Gymnasium. The frosh play their first game, a preliminary tilt at 6 p.m.

This is the Hurons last year in the IIAC. Over the last four years EMU has won but four conference games and has finished all four years. They failed to notch an IIAC win last year.

The EMU coach is Coach Adams, former Charleston graduate and Eastern graduate who is now in his second year at the helm of the Ypsilanti school.

Adams has seen his team come from the "heights of excitement to the depths of tragedy." Hurons downed the Western Illinois Leathernecks, 63-55, in the Christmas lay-off.

Northern downed the Hurons 78-52. Their last start was a 67 loss to upstate rival Central Michigan at Ypsilanti Thursday. Their overall record is two wins and six losses.

Coach Adams will likely start four lettermen and newcomers. The lone new transfer student is 6-4 Russ Harvey.

Veteran starters are expected to be forwards Don Massey, 6-6, Gary Clark, 6-2 and guards Kraszweski, 5-11 and Duane, 5-8.

Both schools have won one battle.

Wrestlers Dealt Defeat At Champaign Saturday

Eastern's wrestling team suffered its first loss in five starts at the hands of the University of Illinois 25-11 Saturday in Champaign, after scoring its fourth win by downing Illinois State Normal 25-11 last Tuesday in Lantz Gym.

Captain Jim Gardner registered his ninth and tenth wins in a row. He pinned his Illinois opponent in 5:07 and his Normal opponent in 7:00.

Floyd Bee had his victory string of nine snapped at Illinois, after winning No. 9 by pinning his Normal opponent in 2:05.

Bruce Strom (147) and Don Neece (191) were winners in both the Illinois and Normal matches.

Other winners against Normal were Willie Myers (157), Ralph Cundiff (167) and Mike Casserly (Hwy).

In the Normal match Cundiff received a rib separation. According to wrestling coach Hop Pinter, Cundiff will be out for at least two weeks. Replacing him in the 167-pound class will be Paul Stracke.

WAA Activities Now In Full Swing

Eastern's Women's Athletic Association is offering five sports this quarter. Action has already started.

According to WAA president Nina Weaver, fencing is held Monday night, bowling and swimming on Tuesday night and gymnastics on Thursday morning. Basketball games are played on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Basketball is divided into two leagues. Winners of each league will play for the championship at the end of the season.

Several special activities have been planned. The bowlers will participate in a telegraphic bowling tournament. Also, Eastern will travel to Normal and Principia for sports days later in the quarter.

Normal Tops EIU . . .

foul shots by Eggers gave EIU a 67-66 lead with 2:46 left. After Eggers missed two free throws, a rebound bucket by Keith Rieger put Normal ahead 68-67. Bill Guerin lofted in a 25-footer with 2:06 left.

Here misfortune hit. After a Normal shot, Fred Horn, a frosh 6-7, center who was not overly outstanding in the preliminary tilt, tipped it in to give the Red-birds a 70-69 lead. EIU was unable to hit on a last second shot.

The victory put Normal in a first place tie with SIU with identical 4-1 records.

Eggers was again outstanding as he scored 23 points and was a tower of strength on the boards.

Gymnasts Lose . . .

Jack Goodfellow continued to pace Coach Bob Hussey's squad. The Effingham flash picked up a first on the high bar, a tie for first on the trampoline and two seconds for a total of 19 points.

Don Clegg was the only other EIU gymnast to turn in a blue ribbon performance as he won his specialty, the still rings.

Garnering seconds for Eastern were John Armour on the parallel bar and Dave Stanfield on the rings.

The gymnasts journey to Northern Friday as the Panthers try to get back in the win column.

Intramural Play After Last Week Finds 19 Cage Teams Unbeaten

Intramural basketball reached the mid-season mark with 19 of the 78 teams in the program possessing undefeated records after last week's games.

There are three independent leagues and one fraternity league in class A. Classes B, C and D have the independents and fraternities playing in mixed competition.

In class A the Flattops (2-0), Kahoks (1-0) and Fella's (1-0) are tied for first in section one; Hernandoes (2-0) and Seagrams (1-0) head section two; and the Bulldogs are the only unbeaten quintet in section three.

Phi Sig and Sigma Pi are undefeated in two contests and Sig Tau has won one in as many starts to pace the fraternity class A league.

The Gunners and 60'ers have 3-0 records to tie for first in one B section and Sig Tau (2-0) and Cardinals (1-0) top the other B section.

Leaders of each of the four sections of class C are Mafia (3-0), Phi Sig (3-0), Codge (3-0), and Strikes (2-0) and Saints (2-0).

The winningest hardcourt five are the Blue Angels who have rolled up four straight victories without a loss to hold a comfortable lead in class D.

The single game team output for the season is held by the Gunners who swamped Lincoln Hall 78-31. Pacing the winners were Nelson with 25 points and Jerry Zachary and Bill Kilhoffer with 22 each.

Three markermen are tied for the single game individual scoring record. Dale Glenn, Vermilionites; Ken Bruce, Rejects; and George Freese, Blue Angels, have scored 27 points each to help their teams causes.

Frosh Cagers Lose To Illinois Normal

Coach Walter Lowell's freshmen basketeers went down to their first defeat of the season at the hands of the Illinois Normal frosh squad Saturday night, 82-80.

In a two year period the freshmen had won 11 in a row. This was the sixth year in a row that an EIU frosh team had been knocked off at Normal.

Gary Anderson, Shelbyville, led the Lowellmen's scoring with 24 points on 11 field goals in 17 attempts and two free throws. Jon Cavanaugh followed with 18.

Eastern's frosh shot .500 from the field as they had 32 of 64 attempts.

Preceding the EIU-SIU clash Friday night, the freshmen knocked off Taylorville All Star Dairy.

Open Meeting Of Senate Clears Up Old Business

The Student Senate held its second "open" meeting of the year Thursday, clearing much old business.

It was announced that the Union Board is sponsoring a Roaring 20's dance 8:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. Saturday in the University Union Ballroom. The Union Board will also sponsor the All Girl Revue on Jan. 28.

Possibility of chartering busses to St. Louis and/or Chicago at quarter breaks came under discussion, but action on the matter was postponed until tomorrow's meeting. Consideration was given to the idea in order to provide transportation for students living in the two urban areas.

Action was also delayed on the project to raise funds to place a sign in front of Old Main. The sign would identify the school as Eastern Illinois University.

Fred Hattabaugh, Senate vice-president, read excerpts from President Quincy Doudna's letter, in which Doudna estimated the cost of such a sign at $2800.

One Senator asked that the question be delayed until the Senate could ask Doudna as to the possibility of having an Eastern student, possibly from the art department, design the sign.

The suggestion was made in an effort to save the cost of architect's fees.

The Senate named Senator Mitchell to head a committee studying possible changes and improvements to be made in the student-faculty boards.

Daniel Thornburgh, director of information, told the Senate about his duties and the function his office served as a publicity agent of the school.

He said his purpose is to "create an effective image" of Eastern and its students in the minds of Illinois residents.

The Senate is scheduled to meet at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Student Senate Room.

New Requirements Added To Stiffen Graduation Policy

Students planning to graduate in the spring or summer commencement must now complete all graduation requirements by the close of the spring or summer quarter.

A recent policy revision adopted by the Administrative Council concerning applications for graduation states:

"Only those students whose current class programs in extension, workshops and residence at Eastern or elsewhere makes possible the completion of all graduation requirements by the close of the spring or summer quarters will have their names appear on the commencement program and be entitled to participate in the exercise."

The new policy also charges the student with the responsibility of providing the office of registration and records with transcripts of any non-campus courses which will complete the student's requirements for graduation.

Applications for graduation and payment of graduation fees must be made prior to April 1 for spring commencement or July 1 for summer commencement.

Proposed Jr. College . . .

staff, and participation in academic management," Doudna said.

The proposed community college at Olney would definitely not be a branch of Eastern, according to Doudna.

The president said the relationship between the East Richland district and the University would be of a contractual nature, with basic responsibility for the college's operation resting with the local board of education.

Leslie E. Purdy, superintendent of the East Richland public schools, said the district sought Eastern's cooperation because it believes the establishment of a quality community college program can best be attained by an established university sharing in the program with the local school district.

"Such a relationship of a public school and a university can result in local responsibility for higher education at the community college level while at the time providing for leadership at the university level," said Purdy.

The proposed community college district would, at present, encompass the same portion of Richland County as the East Richland school district. The district covers approximately two-thirds of the county.

Major facilities for the college are already owned by the district. In 1961, the Pure Oil Company gave to the district a 50-room office building, five additional structures and 14½ acres of land.

Doudna said that until the community college proposal is approved by the voters of the local district, Eastern would participate in the project only to the extent of providing professional consultative services and working out details of the contractual agreement.

Doudna has appointed a University steering committee to operate in connection with the community college proposal.

Asa M. Ruyle, director of regional services, will serve as chairman of the committee and represent the president as liaison officer with the Olney school officials.

Members of the committee are Martin Schaefer, director of extension, and Glenn D. Williams, assistant professor of education.

Williams was recently appointed associate dean, student academic services, effective Sept. 1.

SIEA Schedules Panel; Van Dyke To Moderate

Eastern's debate team tied for fourth place among approximately 50 schools with a record of eight wins and four losses.

Girl Watcher's Guide

Presented by Pall Mall Famous Cigarettes

Three views of an average, healthy girl

LESSON 1 - How to recognize a girl

It is not surprising, in these days of constantly changing fashion standards, that girls are often mistaken for men.

Certain popular items of apparel, such as slacks, baggy sweaters and boxy suits, contribute to this unfortunate situation. Therefore, we suggest that new students of girl watching start with the fundamentals (see above diagram). As you can see, girls are easiest to identify from the side. However, even the beginner will soon achieve proficiency from front and rear as well.

Advanced students can usually tell a girl from a man at five hundred paces, even when both are wearing asbestos firefighting suits. (You might try offering the subject a Pall Mall, but you won't prove anything. It's an extremely popular brand with both sexes.)
